Exposure map for the new European Packaging Regulation

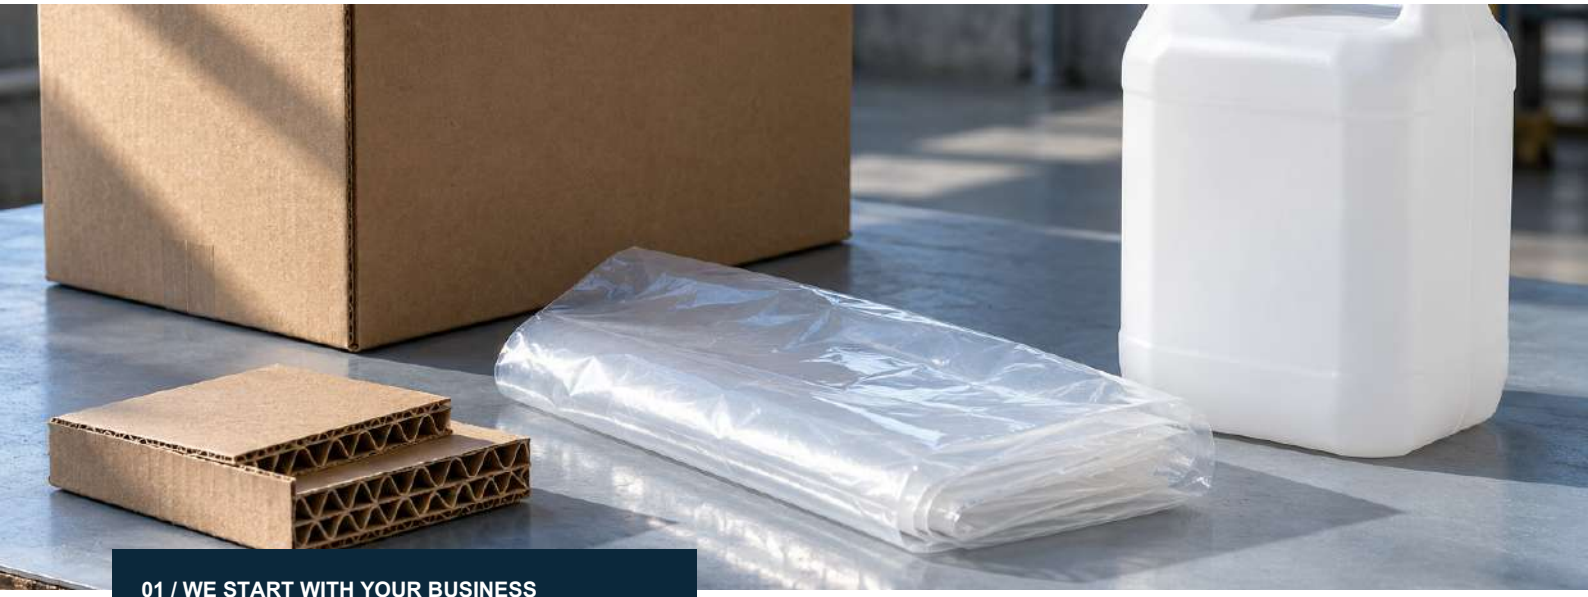

An assessment to identify your company’s role and responsibilities for packaging (PPWR) and your obligations for your products when they become waste (EPR).

Understand your responsibilities for your packaging and products.

1 legal entity · 1 production site · EU scope

EPR · Extended Producer Responsibility
PPWR · Packaging and Packaging Waste Regulation

01 / WE START WITH YOUR BUSINESS

You explain how you operate. We analyse what it means.

01

What products and packaging?

The products you buy or sell and their packaging: boxes, bags, drums, pallets...

02

How do goods arrive?

How your raw materials and products arrive, how they are packaged and who supplies them.

03

For your own use or resale?

What you buy for use in your business and what you sell or incorporate into other products.

04

Who do you sell to?

Whether your customers are distributors, other businesses or end consumers.

05

Where from, and where to?

Where you source your purchases and where you sell. The assessment focuses on the European Union.

06

Whose brand do they carry?

Whether the packaging and packaged products carry your brand or another company's.

Your answers help us identify which responsibilities are yours.

02 / WHAT YOU RECEIVE

Written findings.
Your questions answered.

At the end, you receive two deliverables.

01 / WRITTEN FINDINGS

Your exposure map

Your role under the rules	Which legal roles apply to your company and which do not.
Your responsibilities	Your responsibilities for your packaging and for your products when they become waste.
Why we reached this conclusion	We explain which facts about your business and which rules determine your responsibilities.

02 / FINDINGS MEETING

We walk you through it

We review the document with you, explain the findings using examples from your business and answer your questions.

A document you can share with your team.

03 / SERVICE SCOPE

What we review and how we work with you.

Your company

We review one legal entity, identified by its tax identification number (CIF). Other companies in your group are not included.

One site

We assess one production site: what it receives, uses and sells. We agree with you which site will be reviewed.

EU scope

We assess your activities within the European Union. Before starting, we agree on the operations and countries to review. Rules in non-EU countries are not covered.

From our first conversation to the findings

You explain how your business operates and provide the information we need. We analyse it, prepare the findings document and meet with you to explain it.

Need further support? RAP PARTNER

If you need help managing your responsibilities afterwards, we can support you through RAP PARTNER. This is an additional service, contracted separately.
